Dear Chris Maloney:

I wish I did not have to bring to your attention the matter below but normal procedure is not working.

ON 14 MAY 06 I submitted Sick Call slip
About difficulty urinating and other:
(defecating) — NO ANSWER

ON 28 MAY 06 I submitted second Sick
Call slip regarding same issue — NO ANSWER

ON 19 JUNE 06 I filed grievance regarding medical not answering above.

ON 27 JUNE 06 I received copy of grievance report — still unresolved and that investigation would be handled by Deborah Radweller. To date, no answer

NOW two months after complaint regarding above, the problem has gotten worse — I can feel that my prostate is swollen and all

That has been accomplished is the pushing of paper.

I do know that Deborah Rodweller has an issue against me; and, it seems that issue is taken against me by Medical Dept. because of a case I have initiated in Federal Court.

This medical issue I have regarding prostate/difficulty using bathroom is an emergency.

I will give Reasonable Amount of time from this date for a response to my medical complaint.
If not resolved I will file Supplement to existing Active case — All of which costs plaintiff and Defendants time, energy and money, when doing the right thing can be much easier.

Sincerely, Leonard Baylis
